THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION FOR THE RESEARCH
USE OF TRAINED INTELLIGENCE ANALYSTS

1. Since May 1947, General Dortog (Dortog), commander of a cavalry division of the Mongolian People's Republic, has been sending men into Ulanbator League from his headquarters at Balan Dzadagad (104-23, 43-24). Some of these men have been in contact with Duke Hsiung Ho (赫图). Hsiung Ho is Chief of the Urat Center Banner (102-40, 41-40).

2. In November 1947, Nationalist officials suspected the meetings between Hsiung Ho and the Outer Mongolians and therefore placed him under strict surveillance. As of 15 January 1948, Hsiung Ho was free to move about, but because of the suspicion against him he will not represent the Mongolians from his area at the coming National Assembly.

5. [redacted] these Outer Mongolians were sent into Inner Mongolia to spread propaganda advocating the linking of Inner Mongolia with the Mongolian People's Republic

They also indicated that there is growing resentment of Soviet control in the Mongolian People's Republic and that they would be interested in meeting some Inner Mongolians who wish to make all Mongolia free of Chinese and Soviet control.

4. On 11 November 1947, Pa T'e Li (巴特理), an Outer Mongolian, was arrested by the Outer Mongolian Secret Police in Wangyobmiao (123-01, 46-05) after he had lived there for one month disguised as a lama. Pa T'e Li is from the Tamsaunessum / Tamsaunessum Buleg, 117-35, 47-20/ area of the Mongolian People's Republic and is the son of Pa Pa Mao T'u Erh (巴達茂圖而), former Chief of the Outer Mongolian Education Department who was killed in 1938 by Soviet Russians because of his opposition to certain Soviet methods. Pa T'e Li is one of the outstanding leaders of the Outer Mongolian League, an anti-Soviet group. It is rumored that he will be taken to Ulan Bator (105-53, 47-55).
